COLES NORTHBRIDGE GRAND OPENING

New store features local range and creates 130 new jobs for the community

September 2009

Coles Supermarkets officially opens the doors of its new Northbridge store on Thursday 24 September at 8.00am.

Coles Northbridge will feature a large range of products, including a selection of quality local and WA products, all under the one roof with 130 employees to offer shoppers great service.

Open from 8.00am to 7.00pm Monday to Thursday, 8.00am to 9.00pm Friday, 8.00am to 5.00pm Saturday and 11.00am to 5.00pm on Sunday, the new Coles Northbridge will provide shoppers with greater convenience. While the in-store butcher, delicatessen, fresh seafood range, organic selection, gourmet specialty cheese case with cheese from the South West, a new curry pot offering, and an extensive range of fresh produce on ice will provide better quality and choice.

With a commitment to supporting its community, Coles Northbridge will stock products from local and WA suppliers including cheeses from Borrellos Factory and Capel Valley Dairy and yoghurts from Casa, Mundella and Brownes Dairies, plus fresh seafood from Kailis Seafood and a bread range from Lawley's in the bakery.

Coles Northbridge store manager John Leeder is excited to be opening the store and offering local customers a brand new shopping experience focused on providing customers with more convenience and a greater range of quality products.

"We think local shoppers will love having such a large range of groceries all under the one roof including an extensive range of quality local and WA products," Mr Leeder said.

The new Coles Northbridge store is located at Tyne Square, corner of Newcastle and Beaufort Streets, Northbridge.
