

Distribution Centres

Our Coles Distribution Centres play an important role moving quality products through our supply chain, to provide extraordinary shopping experiences for our customers. We work hard to make life easier, safer and more sustainable across our network, as well as maintain the availability and quality of our products for our customers.

Working with our logistics partners, we are reducing our environmental footprint through more efficient fleet movements. We are also ensuring customers are provided with quality, safe products by conducting selected quality checks when produce arrives at our fresh produce distribution centres, with additional checks for chilled products.

What's in it for you?

The Distribution Centre offers you the opportunity to learn new skills in various departments, broadening your understanding of how our business works on a larger scale. Most importantly, your skills of communication, leadership, responsibility, resilience, flexibility and teamwork will be heightened from being part of our diverse team, setting you up for a successful career in supply chain.

Coles Supermarkets

Coles Supermarkets is a national full-service supermarket retailer operating more than 800 stores across Australia. Our purpose is to sustainably feed all Australians to help them live healthier, happier lives.

We're an essential part of communities right across the country, with our family of 120,000 team members helping 21 million customers every week. With such a big responsibility, we rely on our brilliant team to operate with pace and passion and drive a people first culture, focussed on delighting our customers.

Coles Supermarkets has an Australian-first sourcing policy to provide our customers with quality Australian-grown fresh produce. By doing this, we are supporting Australian farmers and growers who provide us with healthy, quality products.
