to act as my agent to:

- Seek and exchange personal information (including information related to credit, financial affairs or sensitive information) about me and my accounts from National Australia Bank Limited (NAB) or any accounts managed by NAB
- Negotiate with NAB and enter into arrangements that are binding on me related to the account/s

- Act on my behalf until this authority is revoked by me in writing or via phone.

NOTE: If another individual (apart from the authorised person detailed above) is required to act as your agent (e.g. another financial counsellor within the same organisation), then this will require an additional authorisation form to be completed and submitted with their details.

I agree that:

- Standard account notification (including account statements and other prescribed notices) will still be sent to me by NAB
- If an agreement is made, my written consent may be required;
- NAB will rely on the information provided
- NAB will rely on the declaration and privacy consent previously provided by me
- NAB will communicate with my appointed representative via telephone, letter and email as agreed which may be required
- NAB will deal with my appointed representative until I revoke the authority in writing or via phone
- If NAB are unable to contact my authorised person/s for a 14-day period, they will recommence contacting me as the primary account holder and remove the Authorised Person/s from it's system.

NOTE: NAB can refuse to deal with an authorised person/s if NAB reasonably believes the representative is not acting in the customer's best interests; or it is otherwise reasonable to do so in the circumstances. In such cases NAB will inform you as the customer directly and will suggest other free alternatives that may be available to you.
